Non-Profit Organization Participation

Will you be able to participate in this years' festival? Many of our previous participants have placed an interest in returning and we are encouraged by the level of interest. We are holding our cost down and will pass those savings onto the participants.

Central Area Community Festival is an event that provides a venue for the Community to share in art, culture and education by raising ones awareness on issues that affect the quality of their life.

As the Director of the annual Central Area Community Festival [CACF] we are excited about this years' festival and we are looking forward to having you take part in this years' festive event.

Thanks
Vic Minor, Director CACF
